— FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE —

Upcoming Francis E. Walter Dam weekend whitewater release lowered for Saturday, canceled for Sunday

PHILADELPHIA (June 21, 2007): The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers today announced that it will lower the previously stated maximum water releases for Saturday, June 23, 2007. Sunday's release will be cancelled completely, unless precipitation conditions change.

The Saturday release will be lowered to 700 cubic feet per second.

This change has been made in coordination with the Pennsylvania Department of Natural Resources and the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission.
